It is just as much his business to keep people out of trouble as it is to punish them for causing trouble. Such has been the rule for many years in Lonin the world, and of late the example has been largely copied in many American cities. This practice has obtained in Ocala for some time, and the Star has often had occasion to admire the patience of the members of the city police, who have made it a rule to correct rather than to arrest severe measures would be taken The crate mill here resumed operaall who seemed to offend through against them, and, of course, implied tions Monday with a full force of ignorance. In the past few weeks, however, a new star has shone in police circlesa person who was on the lookout for the unwary citizen, to yank him before the recorder and replenish the city treasury because the wheels of his auto did not track, or for something else of the same importance. And now we are told that there is a possibility that this star will become a permanent light in the firmament, rebuking with its lustre those dimvisioned cops who are so busy looking for real criminals that they sometimes fail to notice that a peaceable citizen's car is on the wrong side of the street 500 fighting men; if it refused to do for a minute.

If the authorities put on a man who has already got the town down on him, they will make a grave mistake and one that will be prolific of trouble in future.

TROUBLE ON THE ROAD TO TAMPA

There is going to be a Mendenhall affair to tell about which concerns several Lakeland people if matters don't take a sudden change. Those who remember the case and consider themselves guilty should have their luck changed some way as there is only one way to get to Tampa and it is being kept mighty hot these days. -Lakeland Star.

There is material for one or more Mendenhall affairs in almost every city, and Ocala is no exception.

SHOW HUGHES UNFIT

Mr. Harold Tribble of Lake City, Democrats Uncover Records of His Public Career.

> Figures as Shrewd, Able Defender o Big Financial Interests-Declared Ideal Candidate of the Money Barons.

Charles Evans Hughes will be shown in the campaign as the shrewd and able defender of the financial interests, a corporation-minded man who is able to disguise in high-sounding phrases his lack of sympathy for the plight of the average citizen who has insufficient wealth to defend his rights against big business, according to a dispatch from New York.

His record as governor of New York and his other acts in public life are being examined by eastern Democrats who are close to the sources of information, and it is declared that facts will be brought into the campaign showing him the ideal candidate of the money barons, sincere in his support of protection for the financial interests, but out of sympathy with the great mass of the American people.

In his discussion Chairman Harris declared that Hughes was not nominated at the Chicago convention, but L. Davis of Irvine motored to Orange at a meeting last winter of the leading powers in the business world, "whose profits were taken away by the Underwood tariff law and who look upon the enactment of federal trade and commerce laws as a personal attack upon themselves."

"Man, the human being, has no place served by striking railroad men in Mr. and Mrs. George Blitch were clared Mr. Harris. "He is a defender Monday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. D. of property rights, as his veto of the lower gas rate bill and his disapproval of the income tax show. The Republicans hope to win by dividing the country and deceiving the rank and file. Hughes is an adroit, shrewd, resourceful politician and a campaigner of unusual ability who can put more feeling and force into a sentence that doesn't mean anything than any other man in public life. But he was a lamentable failure as a governor."

"It was the Hughes administration that made the blunder of putting $30,-000,000 in the sinking fund," Chairman Harris continued. "It was the Hughes administration that was responsible for the unworkable plans for the barge canal; for the expenditure ury, and for increasing the state pay roll $8,000,000."

Aggressive Campaign Promised.

Contrary to reports, the Democratic organization will make an aggressive campaign in a number of Republican States. Plans are under way for a direction of Homer S. Cummings, nawho is vice chairman of the committee. Vance McCormick, the new chairman of the national committee, declored that any reports that the Democrats were going to avoid Republican States were unauthorized. He said emphatically that the Democrats were going to carry the fight into all states that might be classed as in any way doubtful, and the Democratic chieftain looks upon Maine-once regarded as a rock-ribbed Republican state—as exceeding doubtful territory for the Republicans.
